

New Pro-Life Women Elected to Congress

Susan B. Anthony List (SBA List) is celebrating the election of at least 16 new pro-life women to the U.S. House of Representatives, seven of whom flipped pro-abortion Democrat seats.

This diverse group of ladies has more than doubled the number of pro-life women representatives in Congress.

Maria Salazar (FL-27)

- Flipped a pro-abortion Democrat seat previously held by Donna Shalala
- Cuban-American
- Award-winning journalist for CNN, Telemundo, & Univision
- Reported on the Salvadoran Civil War from the front lines
- A leading voice against socialism, she once interviewed Fidel Castro, and her Cuban heritage has instilled in her a deep respect for all life

Michelle Steel (CA-48)

- Flipped a pro-abortion Democrat seat previously held by Harley Rouda
- First generation Korean-American; she and Congresswoman-elect Marilyn Strickland (WA-10) will be the first Korean-American women in Congress
- 100% pro-life

Young Kim (CA-39)

- Flipped a pro-abortion Democrat seat previously held by Gil Cisneros
- First Republican Korean American woman to serve in the California State Assembly
- Strong pro-life voting record
- Mom-of-four

Yvette Herrell (NM-02)

- Flipped a pro-abortion Democrat seat previously held by Xochitl Torres Small
- First Republican woman of the Cherokee nation to be elected to Congress
- Made her pro-life beliefs a focal point of her campaign
- Former New Mexico State Rep, Member of Susan B. Anthony List's National Pro-life Women's Caucus
- Co-sponsored several pro-life bills, and even introduced pain-capable legislation to protect babies who can feel pain
- Her win made New Mexico the first state to send an all-women delegation to Washington

Michelle Fischbach (MN-07)

- Flipped a Democrat seat previously held by Collin Peterson. Once pro-life, Peterson earned a "C" on the most recent SBA List scorecard
- First woman to serve as the president of the state senate in Minnesota
- Former Lieutenant Governor and State Senator
- Sponsored the Woman's Right to Know Act, so that parents are notified when their minor daughters are seeking abortions and can help provide alternatives

Stephanie Bice (OK-05)

- Flipped a pro-abortion Democrat seat previously held by Kendra Horn
- First Iranian-American EVER elected to Congress
- Award-winning mentor to young women as a member of the Governing Institute's Women in Gov. Leadership Program
- Mother who is passionate about her family and her faith

Victoria Spartz (IN-05)

- Grew up in socialist-controlled Ukraine before immigrating to America
- Businesswoman who worked her way up from bank-teller to highly accomplished finance executive!
- Active in her local community, supports charitable causes, including her local pregnancy center
- Former State Senator
- Wife and mom of two daughters

Beth Van Duyne (TX-24)

- First woman Mayor and Councilwoman of Irving, TX
- Strong in the face of adversity – a single working mom-of-two, who put herself through college after having to leave her home as a teenager
- Publicly advocated against taxpayer funding of Planned Parenthood
- Beth says her children motivated her to run for Congress, she will work hard to preserve our American values of liberty and life

Nancy Mace (SC-01)

- Flipped a pro-abortion Democrat seat previously held by Joe Cunningham
- First woman to graduate from The Citadel Military College.
- Mom-of-two, who has held press conferences at The Waffle House, her high school place of employment
- Former state rep with a 100% pro-life voting record
- A strong thinker and fighter, with experience in public relations, corporate technology, and real estate

Ashley Hinson (IA-01)

- Flipped a pro-abortion Democrat seat previously held by Abby Finkenauer
- First woman to represent Iowa's 67th district as a state representative
- Defeated pro-abortion extremist Abby Finkenauer, who refused to vote to protect babies born alive after abortions. Ashley called out her opponent in a debate for her support of late-term abortion and infanticide.
- Working mom-of-two, an Emmy award-winning TV broadcaster & journalist

Lauren Boebert (CO-03)

- Proud mom of four boys
- Pro-life grassroots activist
- Compassionately serves and counsels at-risk women in her local jail
- The tough owner/operator of Shooters Grill, where her wait staff proudly open carries as they serve their customers

Lisa McClain (MI-10)

- High-achieving businesswoman and entrepreneur, serves as Senior VP of the Hantz Group, one of the fastest growing companies in Michigan
- Wife and mom-of-four kids, one of whom is adopted
- Campaigned on her 100% pro-life beliefs to defeat a radical pro-abortion woman
- Rooted in her Catholic faith

Kat Cammack (FL-03)

- Youngest Republican woman in the House at 32 years old
- Kat is 100% pro-life because her mom chose life for her, against the advice of doctors who wanted her to have an abortion because of complications with an earlier pregnancy – Kat’s life is a miracle
- Gives back to her community as the co-founder of Grit Foundation, which she started with her husband to support local law enforcement, first responders, and veterans

Diana Harshbarger (TN-01)

- Long-time healthcare professional and the only woman pharmacist in Congress
- Knowledgeable on the risks of chemical abortion, would work in Congress to make sure women know about compassionate abortion alternatives
- Woman of faith, longtime Sunday school teacher

Mary Miller (IL-15)

- Passionately pro-life, mom to 7 and grandmother to 17!
- A local farmer whose family is very involved in pro-life work
- Supports local pregnancy resource center
- Will fight to uphold the Hyde Amendment and defund Planned Parenthood

Marjorie Taylor Greene (GA-14)

- The owner of both a CrossFit gym and a construction company
- proudly profess her 100% pro-life beliefs

Nicole Malliotakis (NY-11)

- Flipped a pro-abortion Democrat seat previously held by Max Rose
- First Greek-Hispanic woman elected to serve the state of New York
- Served as a NY Assemblywoman, has a strong pro-life voting record
- The daughter of two immigrants, her mother is a Cuban exile of the Castro dictatorship

